Advisor’s Guide for Planned Giving

Gifts from Wills and Trusts:
When making a charitable gift to a nonprofit organization, it is vital the legal name of the charity, city and other identifying details be used. To name Middlebury in a will or trust please use the following suggested language:

Residual Bequest Language
A residual bequest comes to us after your estate expenses and specific bequests are paid:

I give, bequeath and devise all (or ____ percent) of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate to The President and Fellows of Middlebury College, a corporation of the State of Vermont, located in Middlebury, VT, for the general and educational purposes of said Corporation.

Specific Bequest Language
You can also name Middlebury as a beneficiary of a specific amount from your estate:

I give, bequeath, and devise to The President and Fellows of Middlebury College, a corporation of the State of Vermont, located in Middlebury College, VT, the sum of $_______, (or, ____ percent of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate) to be used to support ___________________ (name of program or academic area.) In the event the need to support _____________ no longer exists, The President and Fellows of Middlebury College shall be and hereby are authorized to use this bequest for a purpose in keeping with the spirit of this gift in the best interest of the College.

Contingent Bequest Language
Middlebury can be named as a contingent beneficiary in your will or personal trust if one or more of your specific bequests cannot be fulfilled:

If (insert name) is not living at the time of my demise, I give and devise to The President and Fellows of Middlebury College (Tax ID #03-0179298), located in Middlebury, VT, the sum of $_______ (or all or a percentage of the residue of my estate) to be used for its general support (or for the support of a specific fund or program).
